1. This is an application for grant of bail. The sessions court has rejected the bail on 24.1.2005. Advocate for the applicant states that thereafter, there is change in the circumstances in the sense that DNA report has been received which indicate that the blood group of the accused is different from the assailants. In this view of the matter, proper course would be to approach the same Court and make a fresh application for bail in view of the changed circumstances.

2. Subject to these observations, present application is disposed of with liberty to move the Sessions Court.
